FEATURED VARIETAL SELECTION: THE CHARMS OF NERELLO MASCALESE

There is a growing trend that we have enjoyed sharing with our guests, a new and energizing fascination with an ancient grape from Sicily called Nerello Mascalese. Grown at high elevations on Mount Etna in Sicily, the aromatic range of the varietal is so well perfumed with red flowers and red berries, it has immediate charm for lovers of Pinot Noir and Nebbiolo. Nerello showcases a wide range of flavors dependent on terroir, giving the resulting wine great transparency too. The styles range from ethereal and light, to earthy and tannic, or what the Sicilians call Selvatico which translates to ‘wild and untamed.’

 FEATURED PRODUCER: ROAGNA A MASTER CLASS IN TERROIR

Luca Roagna is one of the most dynamic young winemakers in all of Italy. As a fifth generation Vignaiolo he acts as a guardian of traditional Piemontese winemaking technique and philosophy. All those involved in the creation of these wines are imprinted with the family motto “Roagna Does Not Change”. However, Signore Roagna’s wines are magnificent at doing just that, changing, evolving in the bottle, in the glass and on one’s palate. A wine may begin its life austere and mysterious but after a few years in the cellar or a mere thirty minutes in a decanter one’s senses are bombarded with classic flavors of menthol, dried flower, limestone and smoky tar. Many of his wines spend up to two months on the skins before being transferred to large Slavonian oak casks and aged for up to 8 years. The final step in the conception of these wines is bottling without fining or filtering, risking instability to protect every gram of terroir in each bottle. Year after year Roagna produces wines of purity with remarkable and recognizable sense of place. We are proud to offer an array of his powerful yet elegant Nebbioli in the hope of getting you just as addicted to them as we are.

BARBARESCO	‘PAJÈ~VECCHIE VITI’ 2008	235
Unlike Luca’s more earthy wines, this old vine production is silky and graceful and enjoys lovely aromatic development already. This is the Grand Cru Burgundy fanatic’s go-to choice in Barbaresco.
BARBARESCO	‘MONTEFICO~VECCHIE VITI’ 2007	215
This marks the very first vintage whereby Luca began to recognize the wealth of old vines in some of their ancient crus. Montefico is the Roagna family’s tiniest parcel, but providing plenty of 50+ year old Nebbiolo vines for this intensely structured style.
BARBARESCO	‘CRICHËT-PAJÈ’ 2004	785
If there is a monument dedicated to the passion of Luca Roagna, it is the monolithic bottling of the Crichët Pajé. This is the hilltop, limestone driven part of the Cru that makes timelessly ageable Barbaresco.

PRODUCER FOCUS: ALTO ADIGE’S CANTINA TERLANO

Located in South Tyrol, the small village of Terlano has long been highly regarded for their white wines which makes up 80% of the regions total production. In 1893, with agriculture being a main economic driver for the region, this brought together 24 growers and founded the cooperative Cantina Terlano. With now 143 contributing growers, Cantina Terlano produces some of the greatest wines to come out of Italy. Their white wines are pure, focused, complex, energetic, and are benchmark examples for others to take inspiration from. These wines have inspired us, and we only feel it’s right to share them with you.

GEWÜRZTRAMINER 2018	75
High elevation combines with over three hundred sunny days each year to define this bottling. The dense tropical vitality we expect from Gewurztraminer is balanced by purity and freshness.
PINOT BIANCO RISERVA ‘VORBERG’ 2017	105
Vorberg is perhaps Terlano’s most iconic production, a mineral-driven style with aromatic intensity.
PINOT BIANCO ‘RARITA’ 2005	255
Cantina Terlano has an unusual offering in the form of its Rarities, special editions of mature white wines that have been left to age on the lees in steel pressure tanks for at least ten years. The Rarity is a Pinot Bianco with a youthful freshness that belies its maturity.
‘TERLANER GRANDE CUVÉE~PRIMO’	375
Chardonnay-Pinot Bianco-Sauvignon MV
Primo is a wine made in the style the house used in the 1950’s, when it was standard practice to blend vintages. Densely layered notes of smoke, slate and stone fruit are knit together to form this opulent and expressive wine.

 VINTAGE HIGHLIGHT: 2004 BAROLO 10 YEARS LATER AND BEYOND

Welcome to our celebration of one of the great classic vintages: 2004. After the challenging hot weather in 2003, and the dreadfully cold and rainy 2002, winemakers witnessed one of the most exciting vintages of the young century as the 2004’s combined the elements of warm days with cool nights. The resulting wines brought together generous fruit with fresh vibrant structure. After their showy release, a touch of patience was certainly required, but we are seeing that patience is finally paying off.

ROCCHES DEI MANZONI RISERVA ‘Pianpolvere Soprano Bussia’	255
Rocche dei Manzoni maintains the heritage of the Gran Riserva concept with this large framed wine that was just released three years ago! Thanks to a vineyard that provides them with great depth of dark fruit, the wine maintains breathtaking size after years and years in barrel.
PAOLO SCAVINO RISERVA ‘Rocche dell’Annunziata’	375
There might not be a more intensely monolithic Barolo from this vintage, Paolo packs this bottling with forceful Nebbiolo black truffles, fine tannins and a long future as well. We have begun to see the wine attain a silkiness in texture.
SANDRONE ‘Le Vigne’	265
Sandrone still showcases how a blend of great Crus can create a beautifully woven fabric. This 2004 Le Vigne remains one of the darker Barolos from the vintage, and that translates into an elegant velvet mouthfeel here.
SANDRONE ‘Cannubi Boschis’	385
Despite the monumental structure in this particular Cru, the complexity has really begun to shine through, as floral elements juxtapose richer berry fruits and burnished leather.
R. VOERZIO ‘Rocche dell’Anunziata~Torriglione’	430
This producer is famous for his sumptuous style, and that is the case here with the most generous palate in the whole range. Caressing textures show the depth and range of this big plush Barolo.
GIACOMO CONTERNO RISERVA ‘Monfortino’	715
Monfortino is the Conterno crown jewel. Made only in the best vintages, this single vineyard bottling captures the elegance of 2004, displaying a subtle silkiness and gorgeous perfume that will only get better with age.
